TWO BUTCHERS REFUSED TO BE INTERVIEWED!! SHOCK HORROR!
At last I tried my best to see what this is an independent publication.
BLOOD, GUTS AND REALITY! A.L.F.

SUB HUM ANS

Interview with Dick Voucier of Wiltshire Radical Rock band!! HUMANITARIANS??

The Ambassador or Infiltrator ~~the choice is yours.~~

The aim of this magazine is to provoke thought and awareness of people preaching their views to the converted no to speak, within subjects of protest. It is supposedly a basic human right to free speech yet this is limited and controlled and can only achieve support within, due to government controlled, censored and biased media. It is up to us to communicate, unite and live together in peace and true freedom. Direct action is positive but can only achieve support if backed up with conversation, understanding and reason. Yet we are continually ignored by narrow mindedness. We are NOT subversive anarchist terrorists because we dont conform to your lifeless limitations and take part in your cruel unchanging traditions and routines, looking after number one at the loss and exploitation of others. We reject this fascism and traditional routine conformity which is a stagnation of life's evolution. We demand PROGRESS into a free and peaceful world. Is it really too much to ask? Are we ambassadors for basic human and animal rights or infiltrators of a corrupt, perverted, evil system which has no respect or feeling for individual life of any form?

This is my second issue of this magazine and fifth publication, please feel free to me with any comments or criticism.

SCHOOL'S OUT!

This interview is continued from my first issue which is an interview with a school-teacher from a large Comprehensive school at Bletchley. Thanks very much to the teacher, but sorry I had to shorten the answers due to lack of space.

Q6) You teach Geography, what is your opinion on pollution and can you tell us about predicted natural disasters?

A) we already live in a grossly polluted environment. The harsh warnings of the 1960s are still largely unheeded and nearly 20 years has passed since then. The effects are cumulative. Unfortunately when we realise how little of the natural environment is left it will be too late to save it. I would like to point out that an environment free from pollution will not be achieved whilst there are people who are unwilling to accept the change in lifestyle which such a goal would entail.

On the subject of natural disasters we are perhaps dealing with a moral/ethical question as is so often the case where developments in technology are concerned. Scientists are increasingly able to predict where and when the next earthquake, volcano, typhoon etc will occur so that advance warning/evacuation may take place.

Q7) You are teaching the next generation, what is your opinion on nuclear weapons?

A) This is a rather leading question. You are immediately inferring that you are anti-nuclear, (Yes!) Whilst the possibility of war exists the weaponry will co-exist with it and at present that includes nuclear. You surely know the old cliches:- They are supposedly a deterrent, a stand from which everything may take place and so on. The ultimate in absurdity came recently (December) from the Cambridge area, soon to be the home of a second US missile base, (Molesworth) A spokesman said that the nuclear weapons were acceptable but the womens peace camp which might move with it, was certainly not! (The same as the Newbury resident that blamed the peace camp for his house being sold £15,000 short, and not the monstrous nuclear weapons base!!) Anyway I hope this interview provokes thought, I agree on some points but not others, How about you?

If you write a fanzine why dont you interview a school - teacher and/or show them this interview... (and issue one)

SUB HUMANS

In my first issue I didnt interview any bands, just an articlo on a US band called MDC. This issue Ive interviewed one band. Firstly, I decided to interview a band called The SUBHUMANS. The band have been together about 4 years and are from the warminster area, Wilts. The band have released four singles/EPs and two LPs and hope to release a third LP in the near future. The band now have their own record label "Blumng"! as well as releasing other bands records on it. The band dont want to be classed as "Anarchist" or "Punk". Each member is an individual who think of some things in anarchist terms and have been influenced by the punk movement. Their music is an original blend of pop/punk/folk! The lyrics are very thought provoking on the varied subjects they cover, Dick, vocals, writes most of the lyrics. and answered these questions by post, so thanks very much Dick and good luck to you all.

Q1) What bands do you rate? (A) Slits, Siouxsie and the Banshees, Instigators, Sears, Stooges, Damned, Wire etc, The others prefer such bands as Frank Zappa, Black Sabbath, King Crimson etc.

Q2) What is your opinion on fanzines? Fanzines are cheap or and more relevant to the scene and more informative than music papers. I think band interviewers are usefull if well constructed questions are asked, but a good zine also has the writers personal opinions in it. (I think a lot of fanzines are becoming rather predictable and as I said in my first issue, "preaching to the converted", they ought to try new ideas, but still worthwhile, hopefully)

Q3) What is your opinion on the "STOP THE CLT" demos as they seemed very chaotic and disorganized, rather than much conversation with the public about the reasons for demo to promote awareness about the roots of the arms trade and human and animal exploitation and toxicity?

(A) STC was idealistically sound as they say but the last one suffered because the "novelty" (one of the people who think in those terms,) had worn off. (the crowd turned up and the police had got used to them) so managed to keep it defused, but the visual impact of it (especially the first two) at least made people aware of the situations.

protested against, The resulting STC marches outside London (Leeds, Birmingham etc) prove that they were not the shumbolic events the media would like to portray.

Q4) What is your opinion on the Animal Liberation Fronts hoax claim to have poisoned Mars Bars?

(A) In the short term, a success, making people aware of experiments done by Mars Ltd on animals, whether it was in the long term is debatable because people like their protest "clean" and not "subversive", so the message probably got lost in the media inspired fury, (even though they weren't)

Q5) What is your opinion on test tube babies and abortion?
(A) Theres enough kids waiting to be adopted.....!

Q6) What is your opinion on the Band Aid (Bandwagon?) record? (A) Well ok its a useful publicity stunt for the artists concerned, but there again its a good cause. But why people cant bring themselves to give £1.50 to Ethiopia anyway is beyond me. Why does it take a bunch of pop stars to stir the nations charitable thoughts?cos people are too ing apathetic and mindless, follow the leaders all over again.

Q7) Have you been to the Stonehenge festival? Have you played there and whats your opinion on it?

(A) Yes, I've been 3 times in the last 4 years, we played there in 83 using a generator we hired out, I think its great! People think theres too much drugs but thats just a sign of the extent of freedom there is there. If people want drugs they can get them, but its not obligatory and theres a lot more to it than that.

Q8) What do you think to the coalfields dispute and its connection with nuclear power for the future? (as well as weapons)

(A) Actually I read this book and concluded that Arthur baby was very close to being an anarchosyndicalist! though thats probably not the case, workers control and all that, but there should have been a ballot at the start of it all, the police are proven to be bastards, everyone has the right to work but personally Id rather be a self employed autonomous radical free enterprise barter system classless social dissident or something similar! (milkman)?....

Punk is dead? from protest to resistance, as you probably remember, 1977 was a year remembered by the music business as the year of a new outrageous fashion called "Punk rock!" with disgusting young kids with bondage clothes and spiky hair as well as a rebellious attitude towards society, shouting "Anarchy" and saying "no", but did anyone really expect change? As soon as Sid Vicious died in image of "sex, drugs and rock and roll", the Sex Pistols, the instigators of punk, were finished and the music press claimed "Punk is Dead!" But the Damned as well as many other new bands carried on to the faithful disbelievers. Since the early days of punk, a band called "Crass" have always tried to avoid the media and have released many cheap singles and LPs as well as helping many other bands, Crass admit to being Anarchist punks in the original 77 idea, questioning rights and wrongs and saying "no", rejecting government rulers, demanding basic human rights as well as animal rights, the punk movement is very much alive, united and active, in the form of anti nuclear activities, vegetarianism, animal liberation and stop the city demonstrations/actions, anarchy is not violence, it is peace, Anarchists are not terrorists, they are freedom fighters and care for all forms of life on this earth and its survival, democracy has failed, we can not let power crazy governments play with the possible extinction of our planet. Punk is no longer a banner to wave, the time is for action, profit must not rule our lives, equality, respect and co-operation is our rule, when will it be in "Fashion?"

THE END IS STILL NIGHT Provocative angry lyrics about the world situation, Animal abuse, Sexism, Racism, and sarcastic but meaningful love songs! Poems for a donation of $10.
(Proceeds to animal and human rights organisations.) From: Harry, 173 Vernon Road,

ANTI-SYSTEM

"NO LAUGHING MATTER" LP

This is the first piece of vinyl I've bought for ages an I've had no "free" ~~happi~~ only £3.45 and a free booklet but unfortunately anti-system show no originality and seem like a very angry confused punk band! The obvious comparisons are such bands as Chaos-UK, Varukers, Discharge, Antiseect or even Uproar! The music/noise is fast, powerful and emotional but will surely only appeal to a restricted audience? The band seem very negative and critical but offer no solution or inspiration singing about such subjects as religion, nuclear weapons and animal abuse, its all been said before! The lyrics being statements rather than opinions, the only tracks worthy of a mention being, "Strange love," and "So long as," "Animal Welfare" would of been the best but the original EP recording is better. Anti-system? don't laugh!

CONFLICT ~~live~~ ^{new} old cassette tape. This is about the best live tape I've had in the last few months for just the price of a £5.00 and on SAM. Brilliant quality, from John 72, Carlton Rd, Mansfield, Notts, NG18 3JL. Conflict, as well as chumbawumba(!) must be about the best anarchist punk bands still around, unfortunately Crass and Flux seem to have faded into monotony, repression, (or have they?) Conflict are a positive determined bunch of individuals yet vocalist Colin's only fault is not being able to control his anger at times! They don't just shout and complain, conflict back up their protest with action and put their money where their mouths are in the form of cheap records and benefit gigs. The music is mostly fast but conveys much emotional anger and the lyrics show great awareness and sarcasm at missing links of the roots of exploitation of human and animal rights, many of the tracks being classics especially "To a nation of animal lovers." Conflict are at last gaining some recognition as ambassadors of peaceful anarchist protest. This is a great collection of most of Conflict's vinyl work. The equally brilliant "Icons of Faith" accompany Conflict on the opposite side with similar angry fast and slow songs with clever lyrics to match. Also includes a few new songs. As far as I am aware both bands are rarely if not never seen this "free" indomitable recording.
John also has many other live tapes of many anarchist/punk bands so send for a list with an SAM.

had hoped to interview a butcher! Maybe its a bit too much to expect a butcher to be reasonable and offer his side of the story and hopefully understand each other, but at least I tried. I wrote to two butchers shops in Leicester but received no reply from either, that's 52p in postage wasted, this just proves how narrow minded and evil butchers really are, how can people criticise the ALF when they ignore reasonable protest? I have been vegetarian for over a year now and have just started to get more active with Leicester Animal Rights Group, (as well as CND) due to being unemployed again! There are 331 butchers shops in Leicestershire, 22 poultry farmers, 11 poultry retailers/wholesalers, 4 meat importers, and 11 other firms involved in the meat/funeral business! but these statistics were from the 1983 yellow pages so it could be more, or less. Oh, and of course we've got a local corporate deathburger Ronald McDonald canabal store! I've decided not to includethe questions I sent but I considered them reasonable, maybe I will have an interviewwith a butcher in a future issue, What would you ask a butcher? or are you content to be vegetarian/vegan? Keep the pressure on, haunt them, they stink of blood and murder, finally congratulations to "The Smiths" on getting to number one with their LP called "MEAT IS MURDER". please use addressum I have included free of any charge. It doesn't grow on trees!

CND has mounted a campaign to alert people to what such war preparations involve. profits for greedy people.

THE ANIMAL LIBERATION FRONT HELP US TO SAVE THE ANIMALS NOW!

FARMED ANIMALS

For economic reasons many animals are factory farmed for the fur trade. In this country mink, arctic blue fox and silver fox are farmed. Their lives are miserable, confined day and night in tiny wire cages within units containing many thousands of animals. They suffer considerable physical deformities as a result of the cramped conditions, are genetically selected for a 'pure' coat colour, often at the expense of their health.

When they finally come to be slaughtered, a variety of techniques are used including the injection of fatal barbiturates, electrocution and suffocation from car exhaust fumes.

A specially-bred, factory farmed animal can clearly suffer as much as its wild-caught contemporary.

Animal Liberation Front activist and Sheffield Animal Rights Group (SARG) member Andy Horbury has been sent to prison for TWO YEARS, for his part in the liberation of 30 arctic foxes from Cockspurrow Fur Farm. The Jury at Warwick Crown Court took live hours to find him guilty of conspiracy to commit damage and conspiracy to steal foxes. He was gaoled for two years on each count, to run concurrently.

Andy is not a criminal; he has sacrificed two years of his young life in the struggle for a compassionate, more caring society. Thanks to him, 30 arctic foxes which were destined for the cruel and bloody fur trade, have been released and are now living out their lives in freedom.

In the United Kingdom, over 4½ million animals are subjected to painful experiments every year, 3,000 animals are slaughtered every working minute, millions are imprisoned in factory and fur farms and every day hundreds of thousands of wild animals are persecuted and killed in the name of 'sport'. The catalogue of animal persecution and abuse is endless.

For many decades, people have attempted to stop these atrocities through legal peaceful means such as petitions, leaflets and writing to politicians. Sadly, these methods, on their own, have failed to stem the tide of animal suffering, and the situation for animals has got worse.

The Animal Liberation Front is a group of people who are not prepared to stand by while animals are being so brutally exploited and persecuted. We believe in taking direct action in rescuing animals from vivisection laboratories, factory farms and other cruel establishments, and also causing damage to property belonging to animal abusers and animal abuse establishments - to prevent animal suffering and cause financial loss, and eventual financial ruin to those who persecute defenceless creatures.

The above views are those of the A.L.F. and not of the editor, but Andy is NOT a criminal.

Please write to Andy with messages of support and solidarity. His address is Andrew Horbury, No. C54235, HM Prison Birmingham, Winslow Green Road, Birmingham B18 4AS.

As you probably know RAF Molesworth is to be the second American cruise missile base on British soil, (!) The base now has a seven mile perimeter razor wire fence but probably won't house cruise missiles until 1988! Government propaganda warns us of a Soviet threat and claim nuclear weapons have kept world peace since 1945 but what about the cost and the recent Ethiopian disaster? as well as recent disease cases of the nuclear guinea pig test veterans? and of course the reality of Nagasaki and Hiroshima? The Soviet empire is evil, but what about the American dominance, exploitation and influence the USA has on British society as well as most of the western world? The pop charts? TV crap? Disneyland? (Corby) McDonalds? And nuclear weapons to name a few? Molesworth is only .2 miles from Leicester, I havent yet been but will have by the time you read this. A lot has been learnt from the fruitless action at Greenham Common, CND are involved in non Violent Direct Action at the bases as well as "cruisewatch" and the realisation of the roots of weapons manufacture. So many so called anarchists have criticised CND for their fruitless state controlled protest but what have you done?! "Stop the City" was only a minor success.. the miners strike has brought new awareness of nuclear power and weapons and united more exploited people,,democracy isn't working. The pressure is on for public opinion and so called democratic protest, A maintained pressence is at Molesworth is already in operation and more permanent peace camps and nearby information centre is to be set up as well as Non Violent Direct Action. I have heard that some local farmers are sympathetic to the peace campaigners despite most of the locals being patriotic, narrow minded tory fascists! The police attitudes seem to change with the shifts so I hear! some are hot off the picket lines! "only doing their jobs!" Why don't you at least visit Molesworth? The Government controlled media will soon ignore Molesworth or be censored as most of the protest should mainly be focused on the roots of weapons manufacture in the city. The nuclear weapons system involves money to fund the weapons, Taxes, profits from the multi national corporations, people to build them, transport them, protect them from subversives; and people to fire them. The government "Simply" give me command from South to Finish. Isnt it time we questioned more people why? and educated them? or dropped them? Hurry 3.3

VANITY CASE?

I had hoped to interview a model from a Leicester model agency on this site with the questions below but when I wrote this in the reply I got: "Dear Mr Harrison, Thankyou for your recent letter, Unfortunately we are unable to help you on the questions you would like answering, Yours sincerely....." I decided not to print the name and address of the agency, they obviously think Im an infiltrator and not an ambassador! Why dont you write to your local model agency with the following questions and/or your own questions? Beauty is profit in a so called mans world but sexism is a crime against humanity.

- Q1) What are your views on the Greenham Common women and feminism in general?
- Q2) Have you/would you pose topless or completely nude? Why??
- Q3) Do you think pornography on TV, cinemas, videos, and in the newspapers is responsible for rape?
- Q4) What is your opinion on prostitution?
- Q5) What is your opinion on test tube babies, abortion etc?
- Q6) What is your opinion on animal vivisection, bloodsports, vegetarianism etc?

Q7) Do you wear make up? (!) Are you aware that its most likely tested on animals? Do you wear fur coats? Are you aware of factory farming?

Q8) Do you look after your health as well as vanity?! These are just a few of the questions I sent, pity I've no answers! But at least I made the effort. In my next issue I hope to interview a vicar and a Police Community Relations officer. As we've just heard recently the maniac rapist nicknamed "The Fox" has been sentenced to six life sentences in prison, (!) But surely the solititions that pass many obscene publications and videos "acceptable" are just as guilty? (And/or the judges and police.) As the crimes were said to have been committed as a result of watching hardcore porn videos.

Five hours later

How do they define "obscene"? Yet still legalise exploitation and dominance of the same sort? Is it because theres no money to be made from equality, respect? or is it to prevent revolution? to keep God's little children from becoming revolutionaries in the Socialist system?

Is Earth just the only planet in a galaxy of millions of stars like ours (if any?) Today the estimated age of Earth is 4.5 billion years old! 71% of the planet is covered in water and there are 14 different religions. In 1979 parliament came to the conclusion that no alien spacecraft from another planet and no life exists elsewhere on another planet other than Earth! Can you really believe this!! Here is proof that politicians lie. How arrogant of them, its a sheer cover up, and its not the only one! There is a prophecy that planet Earth will be saved from self destruction in the 1990s by the institution of a benevolent extra terrestrial government! although this sounds crazy the government are definately afraid of a divine threat to their power! The Members of the Aetherius society in Britain believe that advanced beings from Mars and Venus regularly visit the Earth in invisible spaceships! It is said that George King who founded the society in 1954 can transmit the voice of religious teachings of a cosmic master Jesus from Venus!. Kings mother is said to have met the master Jesus in a Venusian spaceship in January 1959. The society also believes that spiritual energy from Venus is stored in certain mountains, such as the old man of Coniston in the lake district. Some people claim that beings from other planets have been visiting the earth for thousands of years. Ancient myths of Gods descending from the sky are they say simply folk memories of interplanetary visitors who have also gone down in history as Angels, saints and witches! It has been claimed that those extra-terrestrial travellers helped prehistoric man to build such monuments as Silbury Hill and Stonehenge in Wiltshire, and that prominent landmarks such as Glastonbury Tor in Somerset were used by UFOs as airports in long ago visits to Earth! A french astronomer called Percival Lowell caused controversy in 1894 by claiming he saw "canals" on the planet Mars. Canals that must have been built by a martian civilization to irrigate the whole planet from possible polar ice caps as desert rapidly overwhelmed the planet. To build such vast canals the planet Mars would of been a utopia of peace, unity and industry. Sadly it seems the united fight for survival was lost. Just imagine if the planet Earth was to suffer such a natural disaster, Would the inhabitants of this planet work together to save us from extinction.....

STONEHENGE.DRUIDS AND LEY LINES.....

Have you ever heard of Bladud? Bladud was a philosopher and magician living in Britain long before the Romans arrived in the 1st Century AD. He was also a Druid, it was said that Bladud discovered the healing properties of the warm springs in Bath, England, where people still go for the waters. But, his chief claim to fame was that he learned to fly! Legend says that when flying on a rock over the site of what is now St Pauls cathedral in London he had a fatal fall. Modern occultists suggest that Bladud had found how to harness the supernatural energy flowing along "ley's", - supposed lines of mysterious forces that are said to cover the landscape of Europe, marked on the surface by ancient tracks, including Roman Roads, some still surviving today, and earthworks. Because many of these lines are only visible from the air, students of ancient wisdom have deduced that magicians used them as a source of energy for flying! Thus Bladud could levitate and propel a huge stone, similar to the stones of many of Europe's ancient monuments. The reason Bladud fell to his death when he did, occult theorists say that there was a break in the flow of energy. Supporters of this theory point out that the site of St Pauls marks the end of a ley line. The year 1908 was a very strange year, the white nights, Shackletons aurora, the comet Encke, a major meteorite fall in Japan and a strange explosion in Russia in the dense Tunguska forest area. The devastation was likened to that of a nuclear explosion but this was 37 years before the first Hiroshima bomb. Amazingly no one was killed or seriously injured. One theory is that it was a black hole (anti-matter) that passed through the Earth, hitting it at Tunguska and coming out somewhere between Iceland and Newfoundland. Scientific expeditions to the deserted area found proof that it was not a meteorite. Whatever it was, isn't it amazing it didn't hit a vastly populated city? In 1980 American scientists produced evidence that the extinction of the dinosaurs, some sixty five million years ago, was triggered off by the impact of a heavenly body far greater than the Tunguska "object". Perhaps that gave us the chance to evolve, and perhaps a similar event will open the way to our successors! Various quotes from the previous page and this page are by Arthur C Clarke and other authors. In issue 3 of this magazine I will write an article about reincarnation and the food we eat. If anyone has any comments or criticism to make about anything in this magazine please write to me. JTH 7-3-85

You dont respect life, you just accent strife, if discrimination? might improve your position, have you been here before? Did you die in a war?
is your determination burning? LIFE is for LEARNING.

Imported food?

Centuries ago when there were village communities, Caesar suddenly sent his invading Roman Armies. They destroyed a communal life with a sharing belief, essential food and clothing they would swap with their neighbour.

This Julius Caesar was the start of our political state, old fashioned self rule went out of date!
a country under state control, monetary invasion only!
for the fruits of the earth you have to pay!
further its one good or bad its up to you and me,
cos the way profit has controlled us since in history!
to pay for junk food and to pay for addictive poison drink, but doesn't shopping metal and paper make you think?
What value has money? its not all you need,
Plenty to share but you only spread greed.
Job the rich to feed the poor, (not the rich!)
charity feeds your concience and only makes your hand more!
so dont need to profit cos others will make a loss, Isnt be they're slaves, we reject the boss,
will you share your possessions to satisfy others needs?
lets save and work together to grow the futures seeds?
are you subscribing to war? is it death you buy?
Profit from your ignorance could blow us sky high.

MEDIA MADNESS!

CHILDREN playing a prank with a toy gun were shot at by police in Northern Ireland.

A gang of 13 and 14-year-olds were mistaken for armed terrorists when they set up a roadblock near Ballymoney, Co. Antrim.

One of them fired a cap gun at an RUC patrol and police answered with a single shot.

The teenage "terrorists" were rounded up unhurt and sent home after a severe tickling-off.

Killer smog grips London

December 5, 1952 London: The Great Smog descended on London and engulfed the city for five days. During that brief period 4,000 deaths were directly attributed to smog. At the Smithfield fatstock show

U.S. NAVY MAY BAN BEARDS

By Our Washington Staff

The U.S. Navy is considering banning beards. Admiral James Watkins, Chief of Naval Operations, has asked his commanders world-wide for their "thoughts" on the subject.

Under present regulations, no one under the rank of petty officer, third class, and officers in "positions of special authority or highly-visible positions" may not have one.

Battle to save Stonehenge

The National Trust, which owns the site around Stonehenge, will mount a £20,000 campaign in the spring to save the monument from being destroyed underfoot.

It will erect tons of fencing around the 1,700-acre site on Salisbury Plain to prevent the annual visit by 100,000 rock music fans attending the Stonehenge Free Festival.

The National Trust claims the siting of the annual festival around Stonehenge is eroding Britain's most valuable archaeological relic.

five cattle died and nine had to be slaughtered. This 'peasouper' was a noxious combination of sulphur dioxide from industrial and domestic chimneys mixed with carbon monoxide from car exhausts. An estimated 75,000 tonnes of soot fell on the capital each year. In 1956 the Clean Air Act was passed and two years later it became an offence to emit 'dark smoke' from any chimney in England and Wales. Birds began returning to London and winter sunshine increased by 50 per cent.

£6½m cathedral appeal launched

A £6,500,000 appeal is being launched to carry out vital repair work to Salisbury Cathedral.

Much of the cash is needed to save the unique spire, which at 404 feet is the tallest in Britain. The main tower and West Front of the 750-year-old buildings are also in urgent need of major repairs.

A gospel street preacher who rode on his bike up to an Islamic mosque in the city waving a Bible and shouting to the Muslims that their faith was untrue, was fined £50 by Leicester magistrates.

Thirty-one-year-old Clive Stone, of Evington Street, Leicester, pleaded not guilty to the offence and told the court that he was employed by God to spread the gospel.

Diplomatic parkers

More than 100,000 parking tickets were cancelled by the Metropolitan Police in 1983 because the offenders claimed diplomatic immunity, says the Home Office.

Dumping plan

The United States is considering a plan to dump surplus dairy products on the world market in retaliation against New Zealand's ban on American warships.

Road to ruin

A man whose driver's licence was suspended 10 years ago has filed a five quadrillion dollar lawsuit against the Pennsylvania Transportation Department, saying the punishment ruined his life and reputation.

Frank Messina is suing for $5,761,600,563,143,700 dollars and 48 cents, which would wipe out the whole state of Pennsylvania.

'Chop up' threat to warden

A traffic warden told the police that a butcher threatened to chop her up and use her for meat, when she approached his car with a parking ticket, Inspector Anthony Musgrave told Leicester magistrates court.

Liyakut Ali Popat (31) denied the threat but said he told the warden he had a good mind to mince her.

Date-a-pig

British pig breeders are sending videos of their animals to potential overseas customers. The first "pig-in-a-video" has been sold to a Japanese farmer by a breeder in Cambridgeshire.
